Guidelines for Performing

We will have a digital sign-up list and QR code. Groups will have 15 minutes Poets, Singers and Dancers will have five minutes each.

As a council we will pay for the food trucks. We will have a wristband and tickets at the Arts Council table with a list of participants. We will give them the band/tix. We need an iPad to help facilitate this process. We will vote on it at the May Council meeting.

Sunshine added that we can cross promote events with other county organizations and participants at Arts in the Parks.

Our next Programming Committee meeting will be Tuesday 4/22 or Wednesday 4/23 at Chinn Library 6pm based on which date Em from Hylton is available. Dawne will confirm by noon Friday.

Any information that programming committee members receive will be sent to Dawne and disseminated to the group accordingly.

Meet & Greet

Purpose to promote AC and build membership.

1. We decided we will piggyback on Council Member events and use the Arts in the Parks.
2. We will also have scheduled hosted events by Council Members and we will connect with local libraries in each district for this event. Jordan will be the 1st host at Arts Factory. A date is being decided.
